Age Restriction

Anointed Works (AW) staff and their team members are older individuals past the age of (18). We have policies in place to protect our team and anyone who decides to follow us on social media. Parents/Guardians need to know that we will never ask for a follower's real name, age, gender/sex, location or speak to minors in DM's (Direct Messages). We do however, conduct privacy practices on our website. If anyone, followers included, make an account on our website, we collect mandatory cookie information and nothing more. If and when a member wishes to depart the AW community, their account will be terminated and all their data will be wiped from the system.

At no point will AW openly engage with people under or over the age of (18) unless it is strictly business-related questions on our business pages, such as Instagram, LinkedIn, X or our website. For those kinds of messages, we are aware people may send us DM's instead of messaging us on our walls/feeds. When that happens, minors and adults will be answered by support agents and those supports agents will only reply with business information about the organization or our online ministry, Unaligned Academy®.

We ask that all followers and members of our website communicate on public feeds, walls, posts, etc. where everyone can see what we do and what we say. Before sending support agents messages or a DM on X, please note that all conversations are archived by AW for protection purposes and phone calls made to our organization is recorded and monitored for protection purposes. AW will never disclose private information to third parties or to random people for any reason. Any emails, text conversations and phone calls will be archived and remain in AW's Database until our organization dissolves and is no longer active.
